

The Ashok group is managed under the able guidance of the 3 Directors, who comprise of members of the family, who are the experienced beacon lights of the legacy that began long back. Many techniques have been inherited from the senior-most partner, who is on the Board since 1986.

Professionals from various fields, such as medical fraternity, engineering, management, finance, and IT, are on their panel as associates.

The Management is a strong believer of the true values of professionalism and accountability, which is the main strength of good management. The company has consistently applied great management principles through delegation of powers to executives, who always strive to improve upon their skills.